

New Translation of the Mass – Part 14

The Creed – Part 5

And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. 2 Sam 23.2; Heb 3.7; 2 Pet 1.21

Gen 1.2; 2 Cor 3.17-18
Gn 2.7; Job 33.4; Rom 8.2; 2Cor 3.6
Jn 14.26; Acts 2.1-4; Rom 8.9
John 15.26; 16.7; 20.22; Rom 8.9
2 Cor 13.14

The Holy Spirit is also God, hence he is also called 'Lord'. There are not three 'Lords', but each person of the Trinity is Lord, as each is God. As the Father creates, and all things are created through the Son, so the Spirit is called 'the giver of life'. His origin, which is eternal, is from the Father and the Son. The Spirit has always existed with the Father and the Son. While the Son is begotten, the Spirit is 'breathed' (spiritus = breath). So we say he 'proceeds' from the other two persons of the Trinity. Because he is God, he is equally to be adored and glorified with the Father and the Son. The 'inspiration' of the prophets is attributed to the Spirit, since he 'inspires' (breathes into) them.

And one, holy, catholic, apostolic Church. Eph 2.14-20; 4.4-6; 5.27
I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins Acts 2.38; 22.16; Eph 4.5
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead 2 Macc 12.43; Rom 6.5
and the life of the world to come. Amen. Dan 12.2; Rev 21.1,27

We believe in God, but we believe the Church – not in the Church. We do not believe in the Church in the same way we believe in God. But we believe God has founded the Church, and that she is the guardian and teacher of truth. The Church founded by Jesus has four distinguishing marks or notes: it is one (united), holy (made holy by God, but made up of sinners), catholic (universal in space and time; holding to what has been believed always, everywhere, and by all) and apostolic (founded on the apostles, receiving the sacraments and the deposit of faith from them, and inheriting the same mission as the apostles to preach the Gospel to all, for all time, and to baptize the nations). We confess there is one baptism, which saves us (cf. 1 Pet 3.21) by forgiving our sins. Everyone baptized is baptized into the Catholic Church, whether they realise or like it. We expect (in hope) that at the end of the world Christ will give us our mortal bodies, glorified like his. And in the life of the new heavens and the new earth. Amen! So be it!

Pilgrimage to Medjugorje, led by Fr Leon Pereira O.P., from September 4-11 (£499 shared room, half board). Please contact Kath Gambin, 234 0103. The status of Medjugorje is still undecided. Remember though that Fatima was only approved 13 years after the apparitions ceased. This therefore does not preclude our visit to the parish of Medjugorje and joining them in prayer. Come and deepen your love for Our Lord and Our Lady.

Copies of 'The Black Friars', the newsletter of the English Dominican Province (Summer issue), are available by the church doors. Find out what Fr Richard Finn and Fr David Goodill are up to, and see progress on the rebuilding of the priory in Grenada. Please pick up a copy to keep abreast of everything that's going on in the Province.

Please buy your tickets for the Late Summer Ball by Sunday August 1st. It's basically a dinner-dance (no formal steps or partner needed!) and a chance to dress up posh and have a great time. It's on Saturday September 25 from 6.30. Tickets available after Mass or call 0116 243 1289 and leave a message.

Parish Social Committee: We now have reps for the 9.30 Mass (Marian and James) and the 11.00 Mass (William). If you would like to represent the vigil, 8am, 12.30 or 7pm Masses, please call Jeff on 0116 243 1289.

The Choir is on holiday, and returns on Sunday 15 August, the feast of the Assumption.

Please join us in the Parish Hall after the 9:30am and 11:00am Sunday Masses for tea, coffee, fruit-juice etc. There is the opportunity for a chat with members of the Dominican Community and with parishioners. We particularly welcome newly-arrived students and other visitors.

A new petition calls upon the Secretary of State for Health and the General Medical Council to ensure that no patient is deliberately killed by the withdrawal of ordinary treatment and care, including food and water. Elderly patients are particularly at risk. Please show your support by signing the petition at the Wellington Street doors and taking a leaflet to understand the threats posed by 'euthanasia by neglect'. If you are concerned enough about these issues to want to get actively involved, please consider joining the Leicester branch of the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children. We can make a difference! Contact Sica on 0775 88 44 918 or 0116 274 2014.
